

The Bradford County Republican Committee is soliciting advertising space in the annual Lincoln Day Dinner Booklet. These booklets educate and remind our guests of Republican candidates that are running for political office, as well as, to promote businesses that share the same values that the Republican Party stands for and supports. Advertisers are also those individuals that wish to support the Party's efforts.

If you would like to support the Bradford County Republican Committee by advertising in this booklet or if you know someone that would, you can do so in the following way: (Ads should be emailed to Kay Miller in a PDF file, black and white.
